

[DOWNLOAD] Dramatis Personae Other Writings

Dramatis Personae Other Writings

Stewart Parker

*audiobook / *ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC*

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#7470852 in Books Syracuse Univ Pr (Sd) 2009-06-01 Original language: English PDF # 1 8.20 x .40 x 5.50l, .48 #File Name: 8073082411120 pages | File size: 21.Mb

Stewart Parker : Dramatis Personae Other Writings before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dramatis Personae Other Writings:

introduced by Gerald Dawe (TCD) is devoted to Parker's literary journalism and criticism. Contents include 'Dramatis Personae' (Parker's John Malone Memorial Lecture); a selection of Parker's articles from The Irish Times, The Belfast News Letter, Honest Ulsterman, Fortnight, The Evening Standard, Canadian Journal of Irish Studies, Irish University

Review; and the introductions Parker wrote for Lost Belongings, his 'three plays for Ireland' and Sam Thompson's Over the Bridge. Postscript by Clare Wallace. Clare Wallace is Deputy Chair of the Department of Anglophone Literatures and Cultures, Charles University, Prague, and a senior lecturer at the University of New York, Prague. She has published articles on James Joyce, Marina Carr, Patrick McCabe and contemporary Irish and British drama. Her books include Monologues (ed. 2006), Suspect Cultures (2006) and Global Ireland (ed. with Ondrej Pilny, 2005). Gerald Dawe is a senior lecturer in English at Trinity College Dublin and director of the Oscar Wilde Centre for Irish Writing. His books include The Proper Word: Ireland, Poetry, Politics, Collected Criticism (ed. Nicholas Allen; Omaha: Creighton University Press 2007), My Mother-City Bit-Parts, A Memoir Belfast (Lagan Press 2007) and The Rest is History (1998). Maria Johnston is a researcher at Trinity College, Dublin.