0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Not rigorous enough for 2ndBy JenaLove Brain Based activities and these ones were great. I would only use these when introducing the content or as a station. Very simple maybe even better for 1st grade.1 of 14 people found the following review helpful. Filled with case studies and methods.By Midwest Book ReviewGayle H. Gregory and Elizabeth Hammerman's DIFFERENTIATED INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR SCIENCE, GRADES K-8 provides educators with a host of keys on how to help students understand and adapt to scientific curriculum. Grade-appropriate sample lessons and guidelines for creating performance tasks pack chapters filled with case studies and methods.

These exciting new resources offer fun, innovative games covering all the content areas. Based on the most recent brain research, the games engage students in becoming active, motivated learners.

About the Author Marcia L. Tate, EdD, is the former executive director of professional development for the DeKalb County School System, Decatur, Georgia and has been presenting to adult audiences for more than 25 years. During her 30-year career with the school district, she has been a classroom teacher, reading specialist, language arts coordinator, and staff development executive director. She received the Distinguished Staff Development Award for the State of Georgia, and her department was chosen to receive the Exemplary Program Award for the state. Marcia is currently an educational consultant and has taught more than 400,000 administrators, teachers, parents, and business and community leaders throughout the world. She is the author of the following seven bestsellers: Worksheets Dont Grow Dendrites: 20 Instructional Strategies that Engage the Brain; Sit Get Wont Grow Dendrites: 20 Professional Learning Strategies That Engage the Adult Brain; Reading and Language Arts Worksheets Dont Grow Dendrites: 20 Literacy Strategies that Engage the Brain; Shouting Wont Grow Dendrites: 20 Techniques to Detour Around the Danger Zones; Mathematics Worksheets Dont Grow Dendrites: 20 Numeracy Strategies That Engage the Brain; Preparing Children for Success in School and in Life: 20 Ways to Increase Your Childs Brain Power; and Science Worksheets Dont Grow Dendrites: 20 Instructional Strategies That Engage the Brain; as well as Social Studies Worksheets Dont Grow Dendrites: 20 Instructional Strategies That Engage the Brain. Participants in her workshops refer to them as some of the best ones they have ever experienced since Marcia uses the 20 strategies outlined in her books to actively engage her audiences. Marcia received her bachelors degree in psychology and elementary education from Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia. She earned her masters degree in remedial reading from the University of Michigan, her specialist degree in educational leadership from Georgia State University, and her doctorate in educational leadership from Clark Atlanta University. Spelman College awarded her the Apple Award for excellence in the field of education. Marcia is married to Tyrone Tate and is the proud mother of three children, Jennifer, Jessica, and Christopher, and is the doting grandmother of two granddaughters, Christian and Aidan Brooke, and three grandsons, Maxwell Connor, Aaron Bryan, and Roman Alexander.
