Lance Davis : Family Classics: Midsummer Night's Dream / The Mi$er before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Family Classics: Midsummer Night's Dream / The Mi$er:

Two one-hour adaptations of classic works, as performed by the critically acclaimed Parson's Nose Productions professional theater company to thousands of kids (7+) and families at the Geffen and Pasadena Playhouses, and toured throughout Los Angeles schools. Adapted by PNP Artistic Director Lance Davis in broad strokes, specifically for family audiences, the emphasis is on character, plot, and comedy. PNP actors trained at the Guthrie, On and Off Broadway, tell stories in a fast-paced, interactive, commedia dell arte style, on a minimal set, capturing the spirit of the original work. Study guides included.

"Highly professional...thoroughly entertaining." -- Los Angeles Times
"The students had a good time and the teachers are raving about your program." -- Sheila Hess, the Gooden School
"What geniuses they are. A wacky journey through the woods where you'll find yourself and your family wonderfully entertained." -- Beverly Hills Weekly
