The kids have LOVED playing this Old Maid style card game. The cards are small for little hands, and they are a little on the laminate side, so they'll stand up to classroom wear and tear. I plan to use them throughout the year as we talk about the instrument families and have some activity time. We have so many brain-building things to include in our lesson plans for the Arts Areas and this game fits the bill. I was THRILLED to find it and so happy it had shipped quicker than expected. This game is A MUST HAVE for everybody!

A fantastic instrument recognition game where the players match cards to try to avoid being left with the final unpaired card - the fiddlestick!
