By purrkz This purchase was to be a time-filler with an educational bonus and the great-granddaughter liked it so much I left it with her rather than bring it home. Next spring she will be much more appreciative of the differences in flowers. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Absolutely beautiful! We will be gifting this to any of ... By Shnaydo SO well done!! Absolutely beautiful! We will be gifting this to any of our nature-loving friends. My 10 and 12 yr old love it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent product By Amelita Lijek Very high quality cards and color images. Wonderfully educational for everyone!

Introduce the Tulip to its relative the Toad Lily, or reunite the Iris family by pairing the Freesia with its siblings the Crocus and the Gladiolus. Collect illustrated cards of 52 garden flowers, group the individual flowers into their botanical families to form complete sets of four and lay them before your opponent to win! Based on Go Fish, this fun and educational game comes with a booklet describing the features of the different flower families and will delight players of all ages.
