Sasha St John : Gentle Wisdom of the Faerie Realm before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gentle Wisdom of the Faerie Realm:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Beautiful artwork. By Shari Horner Pleasure to use. would recommend to anyone looking to find a new deck that is visually soothing and peaceful then this is for you. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Beautiful Cards! By Gryffin Song This is a gentle and beautiful deck. Soft watercolors, beautiful flowers, and delicate clouds surround a variety of lovely little faeries. Almost exclusively feminine, this deck is wonderful for self reflection, encouragement, or simply sitting around enjoying its beauty. Each card has a keyword on it, such as "relax", "dream", "knowledge" and the like. There is some mild, artistic nudity, so if that's an issue for you you might give this one a miss, but the majority of the faeries are clothed. I've not really been into faeries before, but this deck is so full of serenity and beauty that I'll be using it as a deck for personal reflections. It comes in a sturdy box with an accompanying book with full color pictures and words of encouragement tied to each card. If you like the artwork, I know you'll enjoy this deck. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. sweet and insightful

By Faerie lite I just love using these cards. The beautiful artwork of the faeries is magical and inspiring. I've used many different sets of cards for divination and this set is has a very gentle and loving way of delivering the message that is meant for me to hear. I have found that the short inspirational message given in the booklet for each card, is simple for me to read and understand, but also delivers a much deeper heartfelt message which inspires me on a more emotional/spiritual level. The message is always kind and soft, and yet effectively directs me into action for my highest good. I would recommend this deck for anyone with a connection to nature and is ready to grow and understand their life in a clear and beautiful way

Visionary artist Sasha St John charms and inspires her audience with her sensitive watercolors. For the first time ever, 60 of her watercolor images of fairies are gathered together in the new inspiration deck Gentle Wisdom of the Faerie Realms. This wonderfully luminescent deck comes boxed complete with a full color 72 page guide booklet. The booklet shows each card in color along with a message written by the artist to provide a basis for reflection, contemplation, or inspiration. Allow the beauty and wisdom of the faerie realms to influence your life. This wonderful bridge between the Faerie Realm and ours will delight and inspire people of all ages, from children to adults, with peaceful images and thoughtful reminders to honor our own gentle wisdom every day.

From the Author Along with countless other people, species, and entities, seen and unseen, we share this miraculous and gracious living planet. From the tiniest of delicate, lacy herbs to the awe and spectacle of a brilliant sunset, our bodies are healed and our parched souls soothed with the gifts so freely given by mother earth. I feel it is of the utmost importance to learn to see the sacredness in all that is on this planet. My sincere prayer is that the children of this earth remember how to live in harmony, with each other and with all of mother nature, and cherish the diversity and beauty in life.

About the Author Visionary artist Sasha St John has been painting since her grandfather started teaching her watercolor techniques as a young child. Sashas watercolor paintings reflect a dream world of calm, idealistic images, with the gentle yet intellectual aspect of the female spirit that is rarely expressed in today's art. Her work is evidence of her deeply held belief that we are all vessels of infinite beauty, wisdom, compassion, and love.

Excerpt. Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved. Gift upon gift, miracle upon miracle envelopes us. Seen and unseen work together seamlessly to weave the intricate fabric of our lives. And like a tapestry, every thread is important to the beauty and integrity of the fabric. We are truly blessed to be a part of the vast and beautiful diversity of our Mother Earth. May we grow as a people to love each other and the incredible diversity of this planet. May we know we are truly and unconditionally loved by many beings - both seen and unseen. They are called by many names: faerie, deva, elementals, sprites, nature spirits and nature angels. They are imaginary to some and powerful beings to others. To some they are mischievous, to others they are holy. To me they are beautiful beyond words and they have touched my heart and changed me forever. They unconditionally love all of nature at an incredible depth that is unfathomable. Gloriously and thankfully, being a part of nature, we are loved by them. To describe these entities with words and pictures is like describing the vast complexities of the ocean with only a handful of wet sand, yet this is what I am called to do. I am grateful for the opportunity to paint and share these images with you. These paintings are sincere prayers and visions for peace, love, inspiration and healing. We are all divine and unique with an understanding of life that is precious and important. My prayer is that these cards inspire you to trust your inner guidance more and more, and that you hear the sweet voices of the faerie and nature spirits clearer and stronger.
