It is a great book for anyone that is ready to take their drama ministry to the next level.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Kerry Ann FrazierExcellent! Loved it!

This book is a manual for drama ministers or those who have a desire to learn more about the Christian Drama Ministry. It is a guide to take your vision from the download in your head to the moving gospel dramatization on stage. I wrote this manual to help those who desire to go deeper in the study of Christian Drama Ministry as well as those who are seeking knowledge about how to begin, and maintain a Christ-filled successful ministry. I hope the Holy Spirit speaks to you as you study this manual. I pray that your inspiration is kindled with the fire from heaven, and that your productions are kissed by God and souls are won for the Kingdom. By selecting this book you are saying, HINENI! Which is translated to Here I am, Lord, I am ready to go deeper in you.

About the AuthorKerry-Ann Zamore Frazier is a licensed minister, Dramatic Arts and dance consultant and trainer as well as conference speaker. She is the Director of the Eagles International Institute Dramatic Arts School, playwright, dancer, drama minister and social worker. In her spirit of excellence Kerry-Ann has also completed her Bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland, a Masters degree in Education from University of Phoenix and a second Masters degree of Social Work from the University of Southern California. She maintains that her goal in life is to influence, impact and win souls for the kingdom of God through the ministry of the arts and through her service to mankind as a social worker. In her over 20 years in ministry Kerry Ann has written numerous original scripts and had ministered in Germany, Netherlands, Alaska, and throughout the United States. Kerry Ann believes that the visual interpretation of the word of God has a lasting effect because the move of the Holy Spirit causes strong holds to be broken and captives to be set free.
