Two StarsBy AguagypsySmall book. Informative but my son did not learn how to throw his voice!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great for learning the "near voice"By VoicethrowerTeaches you how to speak without moving your lips, as well as how to develop character voices. This is known as the "near voice" since you are creating the voice of a character who is typically right next to you. This book will teach you all you need to know to begin doing shows of your own. "Throwing your voice" also known as the "distant voice" is a very different technique, and is not covered. It is very advanced and rarely found in print, as it involves hearing the ventriloquist demonstrate the technique.

Darren Griffin has been a ventriloquist since 1974. Now, after years of experience and thousands of shows, he brings you techniques that are easily mastered. Learn to speak without moving your lips, the different voices that will bring your characters to life, and how to combine your imagination and your voice to create real magic.

About the Author Darren Griffin has been a performing ventriloquist since receiving a figure for Christmas in 1974 (when he was eight years old). Since that time he has appeared in thousands of shows. His characters range from a Scottish sea serpent who plays the bagpipes, to a wizard that does actual magic tricks. From a secret agent monkey with a laser banana to a feisty cockatoo who loves suckers. Darren is also a Consulting Hypnotist and Reiki master. He helps clients with stress, pain management, insomnia, smoking cessation and the occasional forensic hypnosis case. He lives in Utah with his wife, two daughters, one son-in-law and three ferrets.
