The quality of the paper is top notch and the graphics and photography are highlighted and enhanced by the high end printing that was probably used to make the images simple pop! Each day removes to reveal the one underneath it. Fascinating tidbits of information are presented about the pieces highlighted drawing you into the calendar. Every day becomes an event to get to the next page. I have purchased other calendars from Workman, this is my favorite. For a person into jewelry, this calendar is the next best thing to going to a high end museum. Well worth it. I highly recommend this product. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Gorgeous! By M. Michaels Beautiful, thought-provoking pieces in this collection! I have it on my desk at work, and I have even had some colleagues who don't care about jewelry ask me about them! Many of these pieces are historical, and tell about a culture, in addition to just being "pretty to look at". High quality paper lets me save those images that I like to a paper art journal that I keep.

A priceless gift for the jewelry lover: a stunning new piece for each day of the year, photographed and reproduced in exquisite detail and sumptuous full color. Featuring a variety of necklaces, rings, brooches, and earrings both antique and contemporary; from designers including Harry Winston, Fabergé, Van Cleef & Arpels, and Chanel Jewelry is a sophisticated celebration of artistry, craftsmanship, and pure opulence. The cover features a specially commissioned shot of contemporary and vintage rings from Fred Leighton (retail value: $198,000).
