Crossword fans will welcome this first book in a new series from TheOrange County Register, a popular California newspaper. Created by some of the nations top constructors, and featuring super themes and clues rich in trivia and wordplay, these 72 puzzles are edited by a phenom who became the newspaper's crossword editor while still in high school. Ranging from easy to very hard, theyll keep solvers entertained, page after page.

About the Author David Steinberg is the youngest crossword editor in the country. He began editing crosswords for the Orange County Register when he was only 15, and has since published nearly 200 crosswords in The New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, the Wall Street Journal, and other markets. He lives in CA and attends Stanford University.
