Monte Beauchamp : Krampus Playing Cards before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Krampus Playing Cards:

So Worth It By Britt HI figured, like other novelty card decks, that there would be only about a dozen images repeated on the cards, but each and every card has a different illustration on it! So much more than I expected. I used this deck when playing cards with my family on the eve of Thanksgiving, we had so much fun laughing and enjoying the artwork. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Unique deck of Christmas cards By AML ART Great deck of playing cards. Am a collector of unique decks and this one had different illustrations throughout not just one design. This is something that I look for in artistic playing cards. It is a great quirky stocking stuffer. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A great set of images By Sharon S. I bought this deck of cards and Beauchamp's Krampus Sticker Book together. I think the quality of printing is much better on the deck of cards (sharper and clearer) than in the book of stickers. While there are a lot of duplicate images between the deck of cards and the book of stickers, there are still enough unique images in each product to warrant buying both (for the aficionado). Keep in mind that Beauchamp's books focus on Krampus postcards, and all but one image in the deck of cards are miniaturized (i.e. rectangular) images of postcards (as are all the images in the sticker book). There are 52 different images in the deck...they do not repeat. The back of all the cards is a great "scrap" image of a Krampus face.

A deck of playing cards featuring 52 different Krampus images. High-quality printing and lamination. The images are reproduced from vintage, pre-WWI Krampus postcards. In the early Christmas traditions of Europe, the Krampus was St. Nikolaus' dark servant—a hairy, horned, supernatural beast whose pointed ears and long, slithering tongue gave misbehavers the creeps! At Christmastime, St. Nicholas rewards children who've been good all year—but those who have behaved badly are visited by the Krampus!
