Mr. Bruce Kane : Laughter In One Act before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Laughter In One Act:

Nine one act comedy plays including: "Caught In The Act" in which a man and a woman trapped in a one act play try to sort out their relationship while their life keeps getting re-written. "Cracking The Whip" - The entire play takes placed in the fevered imagination of a confused dentist who is tormented by three fantasy women including his whip cracking ex-wife. "In The Beginning" - What happens when a sophisticated Even meets the hunky but dim Adam at the Garden Of Eden Bar Grill. "Mirror,Mirror" - A woman of a "certain age" learns from her "mirror" that she's been surpassed in the looks department by her sexy stepdaughter. "Ruby Of Elsinore" - Hamlet's leading characters let their hair down to Ruby, the hair dresser with attitude. "The Real Problem" - Four Shakespearean heroines take conflicting views on love and men. "Under The Balcony" - Casanova tries to turn Romeo from a lover to a seducer under Juliet's balcony. "Moments" - A couple accidentally reconnect ten years after sharing a passionate but short lived relationship. "I Can Explain" - Four friends participate in a dance of shifting romances, friendships and betrayal.
