Aside from Dan's treatment, this is greatBy CTI love the Street Fighter comics by Udon because they're a light hearted and cartoonish series in a sea of doom and gloom comics. They also have a nice anime-esque art style which fits well with the classic video games. While I enjoy the main comic line (albeit, have difficulty keeping track of the reading order), I think the Legends series is even better as they get to have a tighter focus on the main characters.In the Sakura Legends series, we deal with Sakura Kusango, the fifteen year old BIGGEST FAN OF RYU IN THE WORLD. The book follows her attempts to find someone to teach her how to be a Street Fighter even if it's causing problems with her best friend. We have guest appearances by E. Honda, Rainbow Mika, Zangief, and Karin Kanzuki throughout. Also, some unexpected appearances by the Rival Schools characters who HATE when rich girls cheat at hot dog eating contests. The only problem I have with this book is the treatment of Dan Hibiki. While Dan is meant to be the worst fighter in the world (or at least compared to the other World Warriors), Sakura is supposed to genuinely look up to him and consider him to be her friend. The comic has Sakura treat him just like everyone else does (i.e a complete loser) and that's not cool. Overall, this book is awesome and I love Sakura and Karin. Get it for those reasons alone. 9/10

Determined high-schooler Sakura has vowed to emulate her idol Ryu and learn from as many different fighters as she can - leading to explosive encounters with the likes of E. Honda, Zangief, Rainbow Mika and her fiercest rival, Karin! But perhaps her greatest challenge lies in the pink-garbed wonder himself... the ever-determined and hopelessly over-confident, Dan Hibiki! Street Fighter Legends: Sakura bursts at the seams with equal parts martial arts thrills and zany, over-the-top spills! Whatever lies ahead for Sakura, one thing is sure - the streets of Japan will never be the same! Also includes an all-new 6-page story created exclusively for this volume!
