David Bird : The Abbot's Great Sacrifice (MASTER BRIDGE) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Abbot's Great Sacrifice (MASTER BRIDGE):

In this eighth collection of stories featuring the bridge-crazy monks of St Titus, the pompous and self-important Abbot suffers more than his fair share of the game's aggravations. The world's worst house guest, Brother Herman from Australia, pays the monastery a visit. A team of attractive girls arrives at St Titus, playing unexpectedly well and unsettling the monastery novices. A disastrous start sends the Abbot to the bottom row of Swiss Teams, where he receives unwelcome advice from Josie Threlfall, a local teacher of the game.
